

River Prairie Development

Altoona, Wisconsin

Northwest Quadrant

Existing Wood Shoreline

Community Pavilion

Regional Trail

Paved Surface
12' Wide

Access To Boat Launch

Launch East of Bridge

Parking Under Bridge

Pond Across Road

Altoona "Main Street"

On Street Parking

Mixed-use Buildings

Urban Development Corridor

Connected to River Prairie Park

Remain Access for Community Events

Four Seasons Plaza

Event Stage and Lawn

Interactive Spray Pad

Refrigerated Skating Loop

Named Rough Saw Log Seating

Center Planting

Activity Lawn

Interactive with the Stream

Seasonal Fire Elements

Hotel

River Prairie Park

Performance Area

Mandering Interactive Stream

Native Prairie Plantings

Discovery Play

Rough Sawn Log Seating

Event Plaza

Small and Large Pavilions

Bio-retention Cistern

Large Amphitheater

Destination Restaurant

Outdoor Seating with River Overlook

Proposed
event center

Southwest Development Zone

National Chain

Stormwater Ready

On-site and On-street Parking

Visible From River Prairie Drive

Portal Entry

Prairie Themed

Sculptural

Controlled Intersections

Overhead Cross Arms

Pedestrian Connections to Neighborhood

East Development Zone

National Chain

Stormwater Ready

On-site and On-street Parking

Visible From Highway 53

